

Sermon Questions Hebrews 13:10-24

This week we finished the book of Hebrews by addressing five diagnostic questions for every believer. As the author of Hebrews finishes his exhortation to his audience, he urges them to continue with faith in Jesus Christ. Instead of simply spelling out the exhortations, this week Pastor Jeff formed five questions for every believer to ask of themselves. These questions should be questions that every believer continue to ask so that they may continue their growth in Christ. Proper answers to these questions will result in sacrifice but also great joy. May you be blessed by this week's message and may you meditate on the questions listed below. For those who continue to pursue Christ asking these questions regularly will expediate your spiritual growth.

Here are some notes to review from this week's sermon...

Sacrificing For Growth Hebrews 13:10-24

Am I living like the world lives or as one distinctly set apart unto Christ?

Do I desire to give the Lord more praise and become more generous?

Do I obey and submit to leadership, or do I grumble and complain?

If every believer prayed like me, would revival happen in my lifetime?

Is Christ working in and through me or is he just near me?

Hearing the Word of God and responding to Him is extremely important. If you haven't had the chance to listen to the message from this week you can now watch it HERE. After watching, please use the following questions (if you find them helpful) in your BRAVE groups (now online every weekday) or discuss them with your family and/or friends. If you are not in a BRAVE Group now is a great time to get involved. Please email info@bravechurch.online and we will get you connected with a community that will work for you.
