

When you consider your identity...

Live thankfully...you are not the same. (4)

Live confidently...you have everything you need. (5-7a)

Live expectantly...the best is yet to come. (7b-9)

Questions for Discussion:

Together as a group, develop of list of statements and Bible references concerning your identity as a Christian.

Why do you think many Christians don't understand and embrace their identity in Christ?

Which of the identity statements most move you to gratitude for God's grace to you?

How confident do you think most Christians are when it comes to speaking on behalf of Christ with non-Christians?

Why might they lack the confidence to do so?

How confident are you in speaking up with non-Christians?

What do you need to do to be more confident?

Why do many people look back to certain events in their lives?

What are some of the events your most look forward to?

Why would Christ's second coming be the event we all ought to look forward to the most?