Questions for Discussion:

In what ways can the big picture perspective of seeing our lives against the backdrop of God's future judgment of the world and Christ's reign over His kingdom help us align our priorities concerning:

- Our generosity?
- Our obedience?
- Our faithfulness?
- Our holiness?

Do you know Christians who choose to align their lives with other priorities?

What do their lives look like?

What might you conclude concerning their understanding of God's plan?

What changes does God want you to make this week to align your life more with His priorities?
