

The gospel is not simply a formula, information, nor an idea, but rather encountering the power of God.

The gospel unleashes the power of God for all believers.

The gospel satisfies the demands of God through faith in Jesus Christ.

Questions for Discussion:

Why do you think some Christians live lives unchanged by the gospel?

Has Christ changed your life? If so, how, and what would you say made the difference for you?

Is there a life-controlling sin you are persistently struggling with? If so, what is it?

What will it look like for you to appropriate the power of God and experience Him at work changing you?

Pastor Jeff said: "To experience more of God's power you must take greater steps of faith where He has to show up."
When and where in the past have you had to trust God and subsequently seen Him show up?

Is there a step of faith God is asking you to take that will require Him to show up? If so, what is it?
